The Larimer County Sheriff's Office is now accepting applications for the Spring Citizens Academy. The academy will start on Feb. 9 and run through May 4, 2017. The Citizens Academy will meet from 6 to 9 p.m. on Thursday nights for 12 classes and one Saturday field day.

The Citizens Academy is designed to give citizens an overview of the operations of the Larimer County Sheriff's Office. Classes covering patrol operations, investigations, crime lab, emergency management and emergency services, SWAT and other special units, and volunteer operations are scheduled. These classes are presented by deputies and commanders responsible for each area.

The academy is limited to 35 students and fills up fast. Visit <http://larimersheriff.org/site-page/citizens-academy> for more information and to register. The fee for the academy is $30, which covers the cost of a student t-shirt, materials, and lunch served at the field day.

Northern CO Beekeepers Association's Annual Beginning Beekeeping Course is now accepting registrations. Space is limited and registration will close Dec. 30, or when class is full. For course registration and fee payment schedule visit the NCBA website www.nocobees.org. The course consists of three classes held on consecutive Saturday mornings, Jan. 7, 14 and 21, 2017, 8:30 a.m. - 1 p.m. The classes will be held at the Kerst Barn, 17765 Highway 392, (between CR 35 and CR 37) Greeley. This course provides the education opportunity to produce well-informed new beekeepers in our communities. Students, individuals and families are welcome to participate. Registration includes membership into NCBA. Light morning refreshments will be provided and door prizes will be awarded each week. Participants are encouraged to bring a sack lunch to classes. For more information email ncba-secretary@nocobees.org.

Thompson School District is pleased to announce a pilot program for 10th-grade students at Thompson Valley High School, which is introducing cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and Automated External Defibrillator (AED) training into the school's health curriculum. Several organizations have partnered with the district to make this new curriculum possible, including Thompson Valley EMS, Loveland Police Department, Loveland Fire and Rescue Authority, Banner Health and the McKee Medical Center Foundation. The program is made possible through the Heart Safe Community Initiative and is funded through the McKee Medical Center Foundation.

For more information on the pilot program, please contact Michael Hausmann, Thompson School District public information officer, at 970-613-5011 or via e-mail at michael.hausmann@thompson-schools.org.

The Thompson Education Foundation (TEF) continues to honor excellence in education with the ninth annual Educator of the Year awards for Thompson School District. Nominations for the 2017 Educators of the Year are welcome from coworkers, supervisors, parents, students and community members in the following categories:

Colorado's Low-income Energy Assistance Program (LEAP) begins accepting applications for its 2016/17 season on Tuesday, Nov. 1. LEAP is a 100 percent federally-funded program that provides cash assistance to help Coloradans pay a portion of home heating costs during the winter months. Applicant income may not exceed 165 percent of the federal poverty level ($3,341 per month for a family of four).
